Rena Sofer and Nikki Griffin showed their girl power – with Rena playing the first round in strappy high heels they beat out Days of Our Lives star's Kyle Brandt and Farah Fath.

Mr. Fantastic Ioan Gruffudd and team mate Bryan Greenberg from ABC's October Road also made an impressive showing in this round.

After their loss, Rena Sofer exclaimed "Paul Johansson cheated!" – while he and her team mate Nikki bonded about living in North Carolina.

His confidence was in high gear as WWE superstar The Miz announced that his team would win that night... and vowed to take down the Fantastic Four and the Heroes team. No one would suspect that he and team mate Randy Spelling only just met when they were paired together that night!

ROUND FOUR:

The Miz & Randy Spelling vs. James Kyson Lee & Jimmy Jean Louis
Barry Watson & Rick Gomez vs. Bryan Greenberg & Ioan Gruffudd

In the final four Jimmy Jean Louis challenged the Miz with his athletic stretches before the match began in an attempt to psychologically outmaneuver his opponents. Never to be out down, The Miz attempted to match him stretch for stretch and he and Spelling went on to take the match in a close game that tied 10 to 10 for a "stretch" before The Miz and Spelling pulled it off in the final seconds to advance to the finals. Barry & Rick quietly continued their winning streak and also moved on to the final match.

FINAL MATCH:

The Miz & Randy Spelling vs. Barry Watson & Rick Gomez

GOLDEN PADDLE CHAMPIONS: The Miz & Randy Spelling! The crowd went wild for the final match. Barry and Rick vow to come back next year (with very long beards to try to take the title for themselves). As they scored the final point to win the game and the tournament The Miz exclaimed... "Like I said...What About Brian?!" the crowd roared and the winners were crowned!
